A motion was made to approve the suggested donations from the 2019 Breakfast on the Track's total revenue; this motion was seconded and approved unanimously.

Women's distance festival budget- Lisa Unger

Lisa presented the proposed budget for the 2019 Women's Distance Festival. This budget included an estimated total revenue of $2,500.00 and estimated total expenses of $2,250.00 with estimated total proceeds of $250.00. A motion was made to approve the proposed budget for the 2019 Women's Distance Festival, which was seconded and approved unanimously. Following the race, Lisa will propose that $125 of the total proceeds go to Gulf Winds Track Club while the remaining $125 be donated to Brehon Family Services.

Wrap-up of the Miller Landing Madness 8K/5K/3K Races – Bill Lott and Tom Perkins

Bill and Tom presented the wrap-up of the Miller Landing Madness 8K/5K/3K Race. This event resulted in an estimated total revenue of $2,817.00 and estimated total expenditures of $3,572.06 with an estimated net loss of $755.06. RRCA Guidelines for Leading a Group Run – Judy Alexander

Judy Alexander shared and led a discussion pertaining to the Road Runners Club of America (RRCA) guidelines for safe & successful group runs, which can be found at https://www.rrca.org/education/guidelines-for-leading-a-group-run. Judy informed the board that these guidelines may assist GWTC in providing exemplary services, as well as in preventing possible liability issues in the future. Board members generally agreed that it would be a good idea to implement at least some of these guidelines. Paul appointed Tom Biance, GWTC's training group coordinator, to determine the best approach to implementing some of these guidelines within our club's own training groups.

GWTC's Relationship with Local Running Stores – Judy Alexander

Judy believes it would be a good idea for GWTC members to support the running stores in Tallahassee, which include but are not limited to Fleet Feet and Trail and Ski. Suggested ways of supporting these stores may include purchasing running gear from them, as well as coordinating for these stores to play a role in upcoming running training groups and races.

New Summer Trail Series Director – Paul Guyas Bobby York has volunteered to become the new Summer Trail Series race director. A motion was made to approve this change of race director, which was seconded and approved unanimously.

Moreover, on Wednesday, August 21, 2019, Tec Thomas, Monica Judd, Judy Alexander, Chika Okoro, Mike Savage, and Bill Lott met at the storage unit and cleaned all of the tables of which there are about 50. three club races (Breakfast on the Track 1 Mile, Miller Landing Madness 8K/5K/3K, and GWTC Summer Trail Series Race #4 at Maclay Gardens 5 Mile). Four races (one nonclub and three club) are scheduled to be chip timed in September. Moreover, a third Time Machine has been purchased at a cost of $1,135.00. Triathlete Report - Wayne Thumm

Membership Report -Mark Priddy

Mark stated the club currently has 1183 members from a total of 633 households. GWTC has gained 7 members since August.

Training Report - Thomas Biance

Thomas reported the Beginning Runner's Group will begin on Wednesday, September 25, 2019 at 6 P.M. at the FSU track. This group will begin by running 1 mile and will work their way up to a 5k.

Education and Lecture Coordinator Report - Chris Stanley

Nothing new to report.

Race Director Coordinator Report - Mary Jean Yon

The GWTC Race Directors met on September 8 and had a productive meeting. The group discussed the pros and cons of purchasing a credit card reader to be used for registration at club races. Mark Priddy is the contact on this and will continue exploring this option with Capital City Bank. It was pointed out that RunSignUp can also be used by people with their phones at registration events and is probably a less expensive option for the club. Succession planning for race directors was also discussed as several race directors are considering stepping down over the next year. Most immediate is the GWTC 5 & 10 Mile Challenge. Vicky Verano and Ana Sutherland will be stepping down after five (very good) years of directing this race. They will use the 2019 race as a transition to train somebody new who has expressed an interest in taking over the race. The group discussed several ideas for recruiting new race directors. Other topics included making sure that all GWTC races have a sweeper or a system in place to make sure all runners are in at the end of the race and best ways to recruit and keep volunteers for races. Race directors responded favorably to the idea of a central volunteer coordinator to supplement their regular efforts. Bobby York added that he will be changing the Swamp Forest Trail Marathon to the Swamp Forest Half - Marathon and Quarter - Marathon, thus dropping the marathon and ultra distances.

Trail Coordinator Report -Jim Halley

Jim reported that Dominic Milner is working with the Tallahassee Mountain Bike Association (TMBA) to schedule a trail care event for Sunday, September 15, 2019

Chenoweth Fund Report - David Yon

Nothing new to report.

Website Committee Report - David Yon

David requests that all comments and corrections pertaining to the new Gulf Winds Track Club's website be sent to either David Yon or Peg Griffin.

Youth Council Report - Kaari Guyas

Nothing new to report.

Clothing Coordinator Report –Laura McDermott and Sherri Wise

Nothing new to report.

Social Report - Vicky Droze

Vicky stated via email that there is a tentative plan for the October social to include a hayride through the Alfred B. Maclay Gardens State Park to look at all of the scarecrow entries. Date: TBD.

Newsletter Report - Fred Deckert

Nothing new to report.

A motion to adjourn was made, seconded, and passed. The meeting adjourned at 8:43 P.M.

Alyssa Terry, Secretary

President's column - Paul Guyas

This month, I would like to use my time and space to break some news. The 2020 GWTC Grand Prix schedule is complete. Ok, the crack staff behind gulfwinds.org already has me scooped, but humor me, will ya? They may have been first, but nowhere else will you find such expert commentary on the 17 events that will make up the next Grand Prix. Before I get too far, a big thanks to the Committee on Awards for their work on the matter - that's Jim, Vicky, Bonnie, Meredith, Tom, Stephanie, and chaired by Erik.

If you're an astute observer, you may have already noted that the GP is fourteen events for adults and seven for youth 14 and under. So where do I get 17? Four events appear on both lists. Let's check it out. In January we kick off at Innovation Park with a kinda-sorta out and back course with rolling hills and a loop around the FSU Mag Lab by means of the GWTC Bowlegs 5k. This race historically gives 100% of the proceeds to the FSU Faculty and Friends Scholarship Fund. Then we up the ante from 5k to 10k with the Trent 10k for adults and the kids begin their 2020 campaign with the choice of 5k or mile. The 11th running of the race will be the 2nd time the 10k distance is offered. The race at Roberts Elementary benefits Trent (McElory)'s Touch Foundation. In February you can get over your marathon legs on the St. Marks Trail at the Flash 6k. More often, the 12k is offered as the marquee event, but with the shorter distance featured in this schedule, the non-typical 6k distance, and the flat and fast course - I smell a personal best or at the very least a great after-party on the water's edge.

The leap year brings us a special treat: racing on February 29th. The last time we had a Leap Day Saturday was 1992 and I don't see any races on the results calendar for that day so who knows, this may be a first for the Club. First or not, don't miss the chance to do a Leap Race - the Buck Lake Bobcat 5k Trail Run. The youth return to the competition there as well and have the choice of the 5k or the shorter race which has been a 1.2 mile in years past. March takes the adult competition to the 5th race, the Shamrock Scurry 5k with a fast first mile and then a later climb up pancake hill which I suppose is a parallel to the pancake breakfast afterward where you may go too hard too early and then pay for it later. The single race in April is by many accounts the premier 5k on the GWTC annual calendar, the Palace Saloon 5k. If you haven't done this one before, well where have you been, but you must run this race. It's an extremely flat and fast opening 3k and the finish is a full half-mile downhill. Awards are plentiful and post-race beverages are courtesy of the host site. At the end of April the youth get their first stand-alone event, the Nene Fest 5k or choice of the mile. The first half of the adult series finishes out in May with the Tails and Trails 10k through Tom Brown Park mostly along the shared use trail. The host and benefactor is the Tallahassee Animal Shelter Foundation.

The second half of the Grand Prix schedule in the first half of the year and we stay on the trails for the Potluck 4 miler. Besting your competition while simultaneously trying to hit your predicted time is a challenge I have yet to solve. Proceeds go to the GWTC Chenoweth Fund.

We skip July, but have two races in the first 8 days of August. First (on the 1st) the ECCC (Elder Care Community Council) St. George Island Sizzler. This race is a bit of a drive from Tallahassee, but there are worse destinations than St George Island and after the 5k, we can expect discounts on fare from Doc Meyer's Island Pub. Then GWTC's preeminent track event, the Breakfast on the Track Mile the only race where you can watch the entirety of the competition without having to keep up with the leaders. Both Youth and adults compete. In September Adults take a two-lap tour of the Silver Lake recreation area during the Salute to Prefontaine 5k Forest Run. The youth get their chance by running their first of two consecutive GWTC one mile races named after Hall of Famers at the Tim Simpkins one mile, usually the undercard for the Sickle Cell 5k. Let's see if this proves to be the fastest mile in town. However... In November the Awards Committee has wished personal bests upon all of us by giving both adults and youth the first Grand Prix edition of the Rex Cleveland Magic (Downhill) Mile - and yes, it's downhill, no tricks. The youth series concludes with this race from Myers Park to Railroad Square

Turkey Trot is back on the schedule! The most popular, biggest, and in many ways the best race in the area will be contested for points in 2020, at least the 15k will be. Finally, we wrap up our elite competition with the Tannenbaum 6k at the area's most decorated and competitive course, Apalachee Regional Park, home of the NCAA National Championships and other high-profile events.

Overall, this schedule is faster than in the past few years with more shorter races. Also, it has been commended for the even balance of races throughout the year's calendar. I think the Committee did a great job putting this together. So that's it, plan your training schedule accordingly. And don't forget to run this year's Rex Cleveland Mileand Turkey Trot coming up this month.

Childhood ambition:

In no particular order, I wanted to be a Fighter Pilot, an Archaeologist, and a Garbage Man - what kid didn't want to hang off the side of the truck as it drove around?

Current occupation:

Software Engineer

If money were no object, what profession would you choose?

I would spend my days building houses for Habitat or another similarly minded organization.

Favorite running memory:

This past Springtime 5K. It was the first time our two girls both raced with us. It was also the first time that Gracie, our oldest daughter, beat me in a race. At 13 years old, she won the woman's race and broke 20 minutes. I was so proud of her, but it also motivated me to work that much harder to try and keep up with her.

Indulgence:

Dark chocolate, a great Yamhill-Carlton Pinot Noir, and a Speyside single malt

Non-running hobbies:

I enjoy cooking dinner, working in the yard and trying to finish the NY Times crossword before my second cup of coffee gets cold.

December 7 – GWTC 5 Mile Challenge

December – TUDC Marathon or 50k or 50 mile

Favorite reads:

For fiction, The Lord of the Rings is probably my favorite. Running book that I am currently into is Run For Your Life, by Mark Cucuzzella

Best place to run in Tallahassee:

My favorite run has to be the trails at Elinor Klapp-Phipps Park. Not an easy run, but if you are looking for a great technical trail run where you can completely lose yourself in your own thoughts, they cannot be beat.

Preferred running technology:

I love my Garmin Forerunner with Running Dynamics Pod in terms of the feedback it gives me, but by far, the most impactful tech I employ are zero-drop Altra trainers, which helped by break a lifetime of heel-striking, and my yoga mat, which I credit with improvements in flexibility, strength, balance and breathing control.

Perfect day:

Coffee, yoga and a trail run. Home in time to knock a couple of outdoor projects off the list before lunch. Watch a movie with the family and then head out back to let the kids swim while I fire up the grill.

Biggest challenge:

Fitting 36 hours worth of obligations and want-to's into a 24 hour day and still find time to sleep. Sleep usually loses.

Childhood ambition:
I always wanted to be a pediatrcian.

Current occupation:

I am a Pediatrician

If money were no object, what profession would you choose?

I would still want to be a pediatrician. I would hire a full -time scribe to help with documentation. The best part of my profession is interacting with my patients and their families and so much of medicine has become charting and not actual face time spent with patients.

Favorite running memory:

My favorite running memory is the Charleston half marathon in 2018. Dan and I ran it for my birthday and it was my best time ever. It was freezing and I am sure this was my motivation to finish as quickly as possible. It was a great weekend and filled with lots of great memories.

Indulgence:

Russian River Valley Pinot Noir, M and M's, Blue and White porcelain – an obsession and I cannot stop collecting.

Non-running hobbies:

Interior design, My 2 children and their many activities, going to Tallahassee

Best place to run in Tallahassee:

Miccosukee Greenway and Lake Overstreet trails

Preferred running technology:

The Peloton Tread. Rebecca Gentry and Matt Wilpers have inspired me to run faster and improved my mile time by over 1 minute in 10 months. I would have never pushed myself to sprint at age 41.

Perfect day:

60 degrees and sunny. A long run on the beach. A big breakfast and spending the rest of the day outside with my family either planting flowers or boating.

Biggest challenge:

My biggest challenge is getting faster. I really want to run a 1:30 half marathon and the older I get the harder this challenge becomes. It often seems there are not enough hours in the day to work full time, have a family and train. Every morning when my alarm goes off at 4:45 AM I remind myself it is a privilege to be able to run.

How They Train: Bill McNulty, age 61

Did you compete in high school XC or track? Yes, at Maynard Evans H.S., Orlando

Did you compete in college XC or track?

No, but I was a member of Florida Track Club during college, in Gainesville, FL

How many years have you been running?

45

Over the past 6 months to one year, how many miles a week do you typically run when not injured and consistently running?

25 to 30 miles.

What are some of your lifetime personal records?

Mile-5:01 5K-17:04 10K - 35:30 10 M - 60:49 13.1 M - 1:25:49 Marathon: 3:04:40. What running events do you train for or what are your training goals?

like the variety and the competition in the GWTC Grand Prix schedule - it's a great concept that has stood the test of time. I think my favorite race now is the Tallahassee Half Marathon.

Run 5 or 6 miles at 6 AM, with a light on my visor to avoid tripping on clueless armadillos (yes, that's happened). I found long ago that I can't run after work because there's too much going on in life late in the day that pulls me away from the training. If I am a week or more away from a 5K or 10K race, I run at ~90%. If I am in the week of the race, I run at ~80%. Don't run the day before the race, and not much, if at all, the day after – those are good days to walk. Walk for half an hour 4 days a week to ward off training injuries. Train with the orthotics - but race without them. Train on a course that mimics the race course. Spend extra time outdoors to acclimate, free from the diminishing effects of air conditioning. Weight train and do core exercises twice a week. If injured, or training for a half marathon or longer, try to bike 25 miles or longer once a week.

How much sleep do you usually get at night?

6 hours. 7 hours is a rare treat. I have to run or do something physical to sleep right.

What injuries have hampered your training over the past year?

None to speak of this year. I seem to only get long-term injuries by running marathons - but the event is like a flame to a moth.

Do you take any dietary or medical supplements?

No, just a balanced diet and probiotics. Be careful about iron levels if you donate blood. Get blood tests periodically if you're an older runner. You can't compete well if you're anemic!

What type of running shoes do you prefer?

Asics Cumulus

Do you race in a different type of running shoe?

No, except if the race is XC or the BOT Mile, then I run in Altra Zero Drop Spikes. Woo! (This is my free plug – when are they going to call me about a marketing contract?)

Do you stretch?

Yes, just a few minutes before and after running – I try to stretch all the muscle groups, especially lower body.

What are your favorite running routes?

I run from my house in Piney-Z 99% of the time. I'm a one-minute jog from the trails that give me access to Alford Greenway and Tom Brown Park. The Piney-Z neighborhood has some excellent hills. On weekends I do long runs into Southwood.

What advice do you have for beginning or experienced runners to help them with their training?

My best advice to all runners in America is to live in Tallahassee – it's a great running town. So check the box on that one. Beginning runners - don't try to train with people a lot faster than yourself. Train with people at your level or just run on your own so that you'll like running well enough to not quit, thus allowing you to transition to higher performance levels without burnout.
